Plenipotentiary of the Argentine Republic,
Argentine Legation,
Washinton, D. C.

Dear Sir:-

I am enclosing a formal acknowledgment from the Society for the medals you so graciously sent to our Society, and I wish to thank you personally for these very interesting medals.

I remember your visit here a while ago, and your remarks how poorly represented our collection was in modern medals of your country. After seeing those that you sent us, I now appreciate how true your remarks were. I am very glad to say that the Argentine collection of medals is now a very attractive one. Also I want to say that all of us here are much pleased with the die cutting and general excellence of these pieces, and a representative lot from each of the three medal firms, which I note made these pieces, will be placed in our permanent exhibition of modern medallic work.

Thanking you again, I remain,

Very truly,

Curator.

The science of Numismatics treats of coins and medals of the present as well as of the past, and it is important that the facts relating to all medals be recorded at the time the medals are issued, if neglected they are likely to be forgotten, and thus much valuable numismatic history may be lost. The medals last for all time, every medal has a history, and this too should be preserved.

The American Numismatic and Archaeological Society is keeping such a record of American Medals and earnestly desires to obtain information regarding any medal that may be issued in the United States, no matter how insignificant the medal or how meager the information.

The points to be covered in a full account of a medal are:

1. Description—explaining every part of the design, and giving the inscriptions in full and the exact size.

2. State if the medal is pierced for suspension or provided with any attachment for that purpose, and, if so, if any are issued unpierced or without the attachment, and the number so issued.

3. In what metals issued and number struck (or cast) in each.

4. By whom issued, when, and for what purpose.

5. Name of designer and of die cutter.

6. What disposition has been made of the dies.

7. Any facts of interest, historical or otherwise.

The Society is an incorporated body, its collections are permanent, every American coin and medal should be represented in its cabinet and, so, accessible to students of American numismatics and American history now and for all time.

With this end in view it would request the co-operation of all who take any interest in the preservation of historical records.
